STORMWATER REGULATIONS DISCUSSION TOPIC AT EMC MEETING

The Monroe County Environmental Management Council (EMC) will host their next monthly meeting on Wednesday, February 7, 2001 at the Henrietta Town Library (next to the Town Hall), 455 Calkins Road, in the Community Room, at 4:00 p.m.

Michael Flanigan of Sear-Brown, will provide the feature presentation, "EPA, Phase II, Stormwater Regulations." In addition, Patricia Hirokawa, Wheatland Conservation Board, will discuss the board's activities and issues.

Also at the meeting, the committee will report on such topics as the preservation of environmentally sensitive areas, wetlands, and public education.

The EMC is a division of the Monroe County Department of Environmental Services. The EMC is comprised of appointed non-partisan citizen volunteers and county officials working together to protect and promote the quality of the environment in Monroe County. The council and its staff serve in an advisory capacity to the Monroe County Executive, County Legislature, other county departments, Monroe County municipalities, and state and federal agencies.
